

ProTrans Announces: New Chief Operations Officer

Indianapolis, IN (April 28, 2014) – Craig Roeder, Chief Executive Officer of ProTrans, recently announced the promotion of Chris Blunk to Chief Operations Officer.

As a senior leader, Blunk is responsible for all operational activities including Consolidation Operations in the United States and Mexico, Transportation Management, and Freight Management; assuring these functions are aligned to meet the objectives of ProTrans and its customers.

An integral part of ProTrans for over nineteen (19) years, Blunk's background includes extensive experience in Operations, Analysis and Logistics Engineering as well as experience gained as Manager of Pricing and Cost Analysis and Director of Financial Analysis. He holds a BS in Accounting from Indiana University.

"Not only is Chris highly valued for his lengthy experience with ProTrans, but his wisdom, gained from being with the company as we evolved over our 21 year history, provides invaluable insight and perspective with regard to our operations and our customers." said Craig Roeder, Chief Executive Officer of ProTrans.

About ProTrans

ProTrans is a U.S. based transportation and supply chain management provider that specializes in Third-Party Logistics (3PL), Freight Consolidation and Freight Management Services. ProTrans is committed to providing innovative logistics solutions that optimize customers' time, money and resources through value added service enhancements, leading edge technology development and highly skilled customer support specialists. The company is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana and operates twenty-seven (27) service centers throughout Canada, Mexico and the U.S.

Throughout its over 21 years in business, ProTrans has been the recipient of many awards from numerous customers and publications, including Ernst & Young's Entrepreneur of the Year, Inbound Logistics: Top 100 3PL Provider, Inc. 500/5000: Hire Power Award and more. Visit www.protrans.com to learn more.

###